SUPPORT CENTRE FOR CRIME VICTIMS

Call 800 40 008

Have you been the victim of a crime?

Being exposed to an act of violence, threat, blackmail, hate crime, sexual abuse or other offense can cause serious personal distress.

The support centre for crime victims is here to help.

We can assist you through this difficult time by providing you with information, guidance and support.

The centre's services are available nationwide and are free to the public.

How can the support centre help?

We will give you information about the legal process and support you as a witness if there is a criminal trial.

We can provide guidance and information about how to report a crime.

We will help you apply for criminal injury compensation.

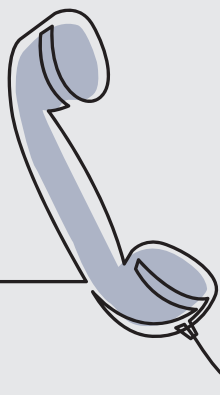

We can support you through the legal process, from reporting a crime to the police until the case is completed and a verdict is reached.

We are here for you. Contact us.
